A Morning with Grandpa

by Sylvia Liu
illustrated by Christina Forshay
Lee & Low Books 2016

Mei Mei's grandpa is practicing tai chi in the garden, and Mei Mei is eager to join in. Mei Mei is too hyper for Gong Gong's smooth motions, and Gong Gong too inflexible for Mei Mei's bendy poses, but they have a great time together. Winner of the LEE & LOW New Voices Award, this title celebrates the special bond between grandparent and grandchild and the joy of learning new things together.

Sylvia Liu graciously spent several hours with our 1st grade classes. The children joyously immersed themselves in reading, writing, art, yoga and tai chi with Sylvia as their inspiring guide. Her enthusiasm for sharing traditions between generations in her gentle story came to life as she shared the story and exercises with our young learners.
